16.30 - 17.00 Press Conference

- See below for a list of Official Conference Side Events (tbc)
- Note: All plenary sessions will include a child, young person, survivor, or civil society representative.
- Given the participation of children under 18, all participants must adhere to child safeguarding standards.
- Attention to the following 3 issues will be integrated across all relevant sections: 1) children at heightened risk of experiencing violence, including children with disabilities; 2) online violence; 3) violent discipline.

List of Official Conference Side Events - tbc (60 mins)

Official Conference side events designate space in the program for stakeholders to deliver deep-dive sessions on priority topics and solutions. The details of these side events (from organizers to speakers and content) are currently being determined. Please revisit this page in the coming weeks to learn about and contribute to the shape of these sessions.

NB: please contact the conference organisers (sabinev@who.int) to propose an additional official side event for consideration, offering a rationale for why it needs to be added and how it differs from the sessions proposed below and in the main programme.
